Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

2. Claims 1, 3-6, 8, 13 and 15 are finally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Pakeriasamy (US 5,957,293). Pakeriasamy discloses a tray comprising a substantially planar main body 10 with a first storage portion 24 provided on a first surface of the main body and a second storage portion on the second surface of the main body. The first storage portion each has inclined surface as shown in Figure 7. The inclined surface is divided into two areas.

storage portion. The positioning means for the stacked trays is the outer peripheral surfaces wherein the upper tray receives the lower tray. Applicant argues that specification does not disclose side walls with two separate inclined areas. However, Figure 7 as pointed out above, shows two separate inclined surfaces. The BGA package is held at four walls 38a-d to elevate the package above a bottom surface of the carrier. Applicant also argues that the second storage pocket of Pakeriasamy cannot hold a BGA package. To the contrary, Figure 7 shows a second BGA package disposed within the second storage area surrounded by standoffs of an upper tray and the first storage portion of the lower tray. When the tray is turned over, the wiring terminal will face upward.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 7, 9, 14 and 16 are finally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Pakeriasamy in view of Nemoto. Pakeriasamy discloses all of the elements of the claims, except for the second storage pocket with inclined wall surface. However, Nemoto suggests providing a second storage pocket as shown in Figure 8b wherein the angled protruding portions engage both a top surface and the corner of a component to stabilize the component and prevent movement vertically and horizontally. Therefore, it would have been obvious in view of Nemoto to move the protruding portions of Pakeriasamy outwardly to prevent eh component from movement.

5. Claims 10-12 are finally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Pakeriasamy. Although Pakeriasamy does not disclose the specific angle of inclination. The main objective of the two inclinations is to prevent the BGA device from contacting the lower surface of the pocket. This is clearly met by pakeriasamy. Therefore, it would have been obvious to provide 40 to 70 degrees angle for the first area and an angle of 85 to 90 degrees for the second area to accommodate the device.

Conclusion

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
